The mission of the South Carolina Developmental Disabilities Council is to provide leadership in planning, funding, and implementing initiatives that lead to improved quality of life for people with developmental disabilities and their families through advocacy, capacity building, and systemic change.

The DD Council is pleased to have sponsored 34 grant programs during the 2015-2016 program year. The DD Council’s priority areas for the year were Employment, Health, Self-Advocacy and Community Supports. The commitment level displayed each year from grantees continues to build capacity for people with intellectual/developmental disabilities and their families.

The Transition Alliance of South Carolina (TASC) has been instrumental in its collaboration efforts with several grantees. They have worked to equip local school districts with new skills and knowledge leading to increased transition services for students preparing to leave school and enter the workforce or college. Project SEARCH successfully graduated 5 interns who all obtained careers with Palmetto Health. The EQUIP young adult leadership program continued to grow and help young people with disabilities learn new advocacy skills. We are honored to be a part of all of the programs who work with people with intellectual/developmental disabilities.

The DD Council and staff have worked hard this past year preparing our Five Year State Plan, 2017-2021. I am pleased that we will continue to focus on those areas of importance as well as launching initiatives to reach South Carolina’s underserved Latino population. I would like to say a special thank you to our stakeholders and partners for their tireless efforts in advocating for people with disabilities. The Council is growing stronger and our voice is getting louder as we partner and advocate together for individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities and their families in South Carolina. I am honored to be able to continue to serve as the Chairperson and I thank everyone for their amazing contributions.

SOUTH CAROLINA PRIORITY AREAS FOR 2016:
COMMUNITY SUPPORTS, EMPLOYMENT, HEALTH, SELF-ADVOCACY

COMMUNITY SUPPORTS

Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities/Developmental Disabilities will have increased participation and choices about their community based services and supports.

Objective 1: Will provide funding and/or resources to improve access to information for people with Intellectual Disabilities/Developmental Disabilities and their families about services, supports, and their rights.

- Family Connections – Free To Be Me
- Greenville Health System – SC Medical-Legal Partnership
- Brain Injury Association – SC Visibility Project

The “Free To Be Me” grant focuses on increasing knowledge and understanding of the services in SC on post-secondary transition among young adults with a disability. Family Connection and Able SC facilitate the transition awareness project to improve outcomes of youth and young adults with disabilities who are navigating the transition from school. Participants receive a “Steps to Independence” workbook developed by parents and young adults with disabilities who have firsthand experience navigating the transition years. As demand for knowledge around transition increases, the DD Council and its partners are able to offer effective programming to youth and families that result in improved transition processes and outcomes.

Objective 2: Will support at least one innovative project that improves socialization skills leading to greater community participation for children and/or adults with severe disabilities.

- Project HOPE Foundation – Extended Hope
- Current Transitions – Eagle Project
- Arc of the Midlands – Kick It Karate
- Disability Resource Center – Independent Living Skills
- Roger C. Peace Rehabilitation Hospital – UCAN: Community
Community Supports Continued

Objective 3: Will support a minimum of one emerging issue that will result in an increase in people with Intellectual Disabilities/Developmental Disabilities being active participants in the communities of their choice.

- Arc of the Midlands – The Arc @ Work
- Charleston County School District - Recipe for Success
- District Five of Lexington-Richland Counties--District Five Transition Services Assessment
- Able-SC RISE: Rallying for Inclusive, Successful Employment

The Arc@Work provides opportunities for students with intellectual and developmental disabilities to learn and practice crucial skills required for obtaining competitive, community-based employment including job searching, resume writing, interviewing, and others. After receiving classroom-based instruction on employment-related topics, students visit a job location to learn about different kinds of jobs and practice using the new skills gained.

One visit arranged by Arc of the Midlands allowed a group of high school students to visit the Assistant United States Attorney’s office in Columbia, South Carolina. While there, students heard from key staff members of the Office including the United States Attorney who disclosed he lives with a developmental disability and has not allowed it to impede his career goals. The students visited different divisions within the office including information technology, records management, human resources, and others. Students participated in mock interviews with senior staff who provided them with feedback on strengths and opportunities for improvement.
Employment Continued

Objective 2: Will support initiatives that provide enhanced employment opportunities for students with severe disabilities.

- Cover School District – Ready, Set, Go to Work
- Able South Carolina – Project Inclusion
- Arts Access – Project REAL
- Arc of the Midlands – Project SEARCH

Message from the Executive Director

It has been another amazing year working with our grantees, collaboration partners and stakeholders. This year has allowed us to stretch boundaries and have a more profound voice than ever before. As we continue to come together and collaborate we are finding and filling in gaps in the system that we didn’t know existed.

I am pleased at the strides our grantees made on all levels. Grantees continue to receive national recognition. Greenville Health System, "Medical-Legal Partnership" and The Medical University of South Carolina, “Piece It Together” presented at the NACDD Conference and shared their programs with a national audience.

It is truly an honor to work with a team of dedicated individuals who are committed to making life better for people with intellectual/developmental disabilities and their families. Thank you for the opportunity to continue to serve in this capacity. I am truly excited about the upcoming year as we begin full implementation of our new 5 year State Plan.
